

Mr. Will

Will Vanmeter began his dance career training with Dance Contempra in Peachtree City, Georgia under the direction of Paola Jenkins. Since then, he has trained with Atlanta Ballet, Joffrey Ballet in New York City, and briefly with Batsheva Dance Company in Tel Aviv, Israel. His diverse training includes ballet, contemporary, jazz and modern dance techniques.

His performance career has taken him to many venues including the Paramount Theater of Chicago, the RiverPark Center of Owensboro, Kentucky, The Cobb Energy Center and The Strand Theater of Atlanta. He has performed as a guest artist in the Atlanta area in roles including the Nutcracker with Dancentre South and Blue Bird Pas de Deux from Sleeping Beauty with The Sugarloaf Ballet. His most recent performance endeavors have taken him to Hilton Head Dance Theater to work with former American Ballet Theater principal dancer Karena Brock-Carlyle.

Will began his choreographic career in 2014 under the direction of Kennesaw State University's Dr. Ivan Pulinkala. Will's works have been featured at events such as The Lume Foundation's annual performances at The Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, ChoreoLab with the National Honor Society for Dance Arts, and the American College Dance Festival Association (ACDFA). In 2017, his work was selected to represent the Southern region of the United States in the ACDFA gala concert. Will received his bachelor's degree in Dance from Kennesaw State University and plans to further his education in the years to come.
